

SEEAC May 23-24

You are invited to the most important matchmaking event for sustainable industries during 2012

Swedish-American Chambers of Commerce invites you to one of the most important matchmaking events in Sweden, free of charge.

Sectors in Focus

23 - 24 May 2012, SEEAC will take place in Västerås, Sweden, and invites attendees from Europe and USA. It is a matchmaking opportunity for companies within several sectors, e.g. sustainable:

- energy
- environment
- accessibility
- construction

SEEAC

Sustainable - Energy, Environment,
Accessibility, Construction
23 - 24 May 2012, Västerås
SWEDEN

Matchmaking

SEEAC 2012 offers an opportunity to meet face-to-face with potential business partners in 25-minute prescheduled meetings. The participants will come from Australia, Bulgaria, Estonia, Italy, Greece, Spain, Malta, Poland and the U.S.

Additional Events

In addition to face-to-face meetings with colleagues and potential partners, SEEAC has a full two-day program. This includes seminars with Swedbank, Sweco and the U.S. ambassador to Sweden, a networking dinner and the opportunity to pay a visit to one of the world's most innovative construction projects, located in Stockholm.

View the program here >>>

Want to extend your stay? Click here to view our special offer >>>

Registration

The event is free to attend. Register today through the website >>>

Contact SACC-USA and our Executive Regional Director of Sweden Ziba Zareie at ziba@sacc-usa.org for more information.

Swedish-American Chambers of Commerce Inc.

SACC-Sweden
Jakobs Torg 3
11152 Stockholm
Ph: +46 8 400 255 39
info@sacc-usa.org
www.sacc-usa.org

Swedish-American Chambers of Commerce invites you to one of the most important matchmaking events in Sweden free of charge.